

52 Entertainment selected once again for the French Tech 120

52 Entertainment, a global leader in online gaming is honored to announce its selection into the 2025 French Tech 120, the French government's flagship support program for the most high-potential technology companies in the country.

This marks the second time that 52 Entertainment has been included in the French Tech 120 a recognition that underscores the company's continued growth, strong international trajectory, and ability to innovate within the rapidly evolving gaming industry.

"Being selected once again for the French Tech 120 is a tremendous recognition of the incredible work our teams are doing around the world. It's also a strategic lever to further accelerate our ambition: to make 52 Entertainment a global champion of French-made gaming."

Olivier Comte,
President & CEO of 52 Entertainment

A renewed recognition of long-term vision and global ambition

With more than 65 games and platforms, and over 2 billion games played across all our platforms, 52 Entertainment brings together passionate communities around evergreen games that blend strategy, thoughtful gameplay, and accessible entertainment, supported by a portfolio of flagship brands.

Being selected once again into the French Tech 120 confirms the group's ability to scale sustainably, while delivering cutting-edge experiences rooted in innovation, responsibility, and inclusivity.

PRESS RELEASE

June 6, 2025

"This program comes at a pivotal time for our group, as we scale our operations and strengthen our international impact. The backing of French Tech is not only a strategic asset it's also a mark of shared values: excellence, innovation, and collective progress."

Gabriel Fossorier,
Group EVP, 52 Entertainment

Continuing to shape the future

52 Entertainment leads the digital transformation of traditional strategy games, connecting communities and delivering meaningful, lasting entertainment.

Backed by the French Tech 120 program, we're accelerating our mission to grow the global impact of French-made games through innovation and purpose.

About 52 Entertainment

52 Entertainment is a global leader in evergreen competitive gaming, uniting passionate communities through a unique portfolio of timeless, high-quality games. From bridge to classic card games, from sailing simulations to casual mobile titles, our brands bring together tens of millions of players worldwide.

Whether it's about mastering deep strategy or enjoying fast, accessible gameplay, we craft meaningful experiences for every kind of player. Our mission: to deliver sustainable, lasting entertainment, driven by innovation, long-term vision, and an unwavering passion for the games we create.